There is free time for more plays on Wednesday (matinee) and Thursday (matinee and evening).

Visits:

- Sightseeing in Bath and Wells Cathedral
- The New Art Centre at Roche Court
- Exhibit with introduction by art expert:
Christian Dior: Designer of Dreams, Victoria & Albert Museum

Discussions:

- The State We're In: an in-depth look of topical interest with leading journalists
- 2 Post-Performance discussions with artists from the plays
- Critical Round Up with one of London's leading critics

Meals:

- Full English breakfast daily
- Lunch upon arrival at Ston Easton, Somerset
- Welcome Dinner at Ston Easton, The Yellow Dining Room
- Farewell Dinner at The Royal Overseas League

We always see the newest and most interesting productions, meet guest artists, and participate in panel discussions with noted professionals on theatre and current issues. Our group size has been averaging 20-25. There is a good mix of past participants and newcomers. The itinerary is busy, but there is free time scheduled throughout to see more sights or plays. For those traveling alone, the group is friendly and inclusive.
